Oral Reading Passage for Grade 3 (FK 2.7)

Please record yourself as you read the following passage. You may read it here or from the printed pdf your instructor gives you.

PLEASE SAY YOUR NAME BEFORE YOU READ THE PASSAGE. If the recording ends before you complete the passage, submit the recording and start a new one beginning at the last word you read. When you have finished recording the passage, make sure that you enter your email and name on the recording page and click submit to send it.
Then, return to this page and click the submit button also.

Click here to open the recording page.

Once upon a time, there was a kind king who lived in a great castle. He had a little daughter named Sabra, and he loved her more than his gold, his land, or anything in the world. Sabra was sweet, gentle, and kind to everyone.
One morning, something scary happened. A dragon came down from the mountains! It had shiny red eyes, sharp claws, and smoke coming out of its nose. Its body was big like a tree, and its roar was loud like thunder. The dragon stomped through the king’s fields. It broke the crops and scared the animals. Then it hid by the river in tall grass, waiting. No one in the kingdom knew how to stop it.

The king was sad and afraid. He had to find someone brave enough to face the dragon—and soon.